

Hopkinsville Kentucky.

THIRD E. H. BARRETT, JR., Editor.
TUESDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1890.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Mr. W. C. Fox, of Denver, is in the city.
Mr. J. D. Russell went to Elton Sunday.
J. M. Franklin returned from Louisville Sunday.
Ford Smith has returned from a month's sojourn in Arkansas.
Mr. Sterling Fort, of Adams Station, is visiting the family of Mr. W. T. Radford.
Miss Mattie Johnson has returned from a pleasant visit of several weeks to relatives in Nashville.
Miss Genevieve Anderson has accepted a position with Rogers & Elgin, the popular druggists and stationers.
Mr. Dan H. Merritt can now be found with N. L. McKee, where he would be pleased to have all his old friends call and see him.

NINE PAGES TO PAY.

The advertisers make a holiday rush on us to-day and we give them forty columns of extra space. The KENTUCKIAN is not much given to bragging, but it is rapidly being forced by advertisers to the point of increasing its facilities for accommodating them in some permanent manner. Directories and other matters of local interest formerly kept standing have long since been crowded out and we have had to make it a rule for some time to reject all but the best class of foreign advertisements. However, every demand for space by local advertisers will be met and we will still make room for more news than can be obtained from any other paper in the city.

CREAM OF NEWS.

A Bad Fracture.
While wrestling with a playmate Sunday, Mr. C. P. Nelson's son, Leslie, 12 years old, fell and broke both bones of his forearm, making a very bad fracture. The bones were set by Dr. Seagrave.

A Successful Revival.
The revival of the C. P. Church continues to grow in interest. Dr. Franklin will remain all this week. Services will be held morning and evening. So far there have been thirty conversions and eight additions to the church.

Broken Collar Bone.
Mr. Geo. Thacker's ten-year-old son, Glenn, while playing leap-frog Saturday evening, fell and broke his collar bone. Dr. Seagrave was called in and attended to his injury and at last accounts the patient was getting along pretty well.

Didn't Vote to Sub Him.
Monroe Chappel, who has been arrested charged with assault, Jim Gibson, a very old colored man, sworn out with having assaulted him by hitting him in the face, cutting his lips and striking him a stunning blow on the head with a large stick. Gibson claims that the trouble originated in consequence of his having voted for the Democratic nominee in the 5th ward Saturday. The trial comes up this morning.

Catarh is not a local but a constitutional disease, and requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla to effect a cure.

MATRIMONIAL.
Mr. M. Bradshaw, of Caskey, and Miss Mattie Clark, of New Orleans, will be married at the latter place on the 25th inst. Miss Clark visited the Caskey neighborhood last summer, and it was then that Mr. Bradshaw made the young lady's acquaintance.

Mr. Meredith Woodard, of Springfield, Tenn., and Miss Mary Russell, of Elton, sister of Mr. J. D. Russell, of this city, were united in marriage at the latter place yesterday afternoon.

WEDDING LUNCHEON.
Jno. Chickless to Sereny Magabell Alexander.
COLORED.
Lester Pugs to Mary Tolan.

It is a Mistake
To try to cure catarrh by using local applications. Catarrh is not a local but a constitutional disease. It is not a disease of the man's nose but of the man's blood. Therefore, to effect a cure, requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acting through the blood reaches every part of the system expelling the taint which causes the disease, and imparting health.

Iron Hall.
Members of Local Branch No. 218, order Iron Hall are earnestly requested to attend at Jno. May's to-morrow night (Wednesday).
Ed. Egan, Secy.

To My Customers
Who have fine watches or difficult work to repair, I would request that you find them after the Holiday when I can give them my personal attention and special low prices.
Respectfully,
M. D. KELLY.

Mr. Cowan finished the reading of his depositions, page 231 in number, Saturday and the respondent, Mr. Prowse will read his this week. Mr. Cowan and his attorneys are confident that fully 100 illegal votes cast for Mr. Prowse will be thrown out by the contesting board.

The County Medical Society held its regular monthly meeting in the city yesterday.

Ex-Assessor Milton Littlefield, of the Union School House district, has been allowed a pension.
Evergreen Lodge Knights of Pythias, is enjoying a boom. New petitions are coming in at every meeting.
The remains of Mrs. Jas. Bradshaw, who died near Longview some months ago, were removed from their temporary resting place to the City Cemetery yesterday.

The attention of all the grocery merchants in the State has been called to the fact, through a circular, that selling price coffee or any other article of merchandise where a price is given, is a violation of a law passed in 1890, prohibiting same.
Rev. John Henry Harrows delivered his lecture on "America, or Christianity in our National Life," at the Opera House on the evening of Dec. 11th, to a good house. Dr. Harrows is a pupil orator of much renown and his lecture was characterized by elegant diction and fluent and forcible delivery throughout. It was well received.

Mr. Clarence Anderson expects to leave for Harrodsburg this week to engage in the photograph business. He will still continue to retain this as his home, leaving his family here. His son, Mr. Chas. H. Anderson, will operate the gallery at this place during his father's absence. He has many friends in this city who regret to see him leave even temporarily.

Messrs. Johnson & Overholser, dealers in hardware, general tinware, queensware, all kinds of stoves and stove fixtures, call especial attention to their line in this issue and a careful study of what they have to say may profit you. They carry in stock a complete line of these goods and respectfully solicit a share of the patronage of the public. Call and see them before making your selection.

The readers of this issue of the KENTUCKIAN cannot fail to see the conspicuous ad. of J. H. Appleton & Co. on fourth page of extra. The firm is always among the leaders in the line of advertising and as a natural consequence is in a like line in point of sales. This firm does a tremendous business and it is daily increasing in volume. A large and complete stock, good goods, prices and judicious advertisement are the requisites of a successful business and certainly this firm possesses all of these.

Franklin's new cheap cash store will be opened up in a few days in the store recently vacated by Mr. Dan H. Merritt. Joe Franklin will have charge of the new establishment and will handle a full line of dry goods, clothing, etc. It is safe to say that he will in a very short while build up a very profitable business as he has proven himself a very popular merchant heretofore. He has something to say in this issue of importance. Read it.

N. L. McKee, successor to Chas. McKee & Co. well represented in this, our extra edition. In his store can at all times be found a choice line of groceries, fruits, etc., all fresh and first-class. It is the aim of Mr. McKee to fully sustain the reputation of the old firm—that of handling good, reliable goods at honest prices. Mr. Lem McKee will conduct the business in all its branches and respectfully invites the old customers to call and see him. Read his ad. elsewhere.

Gas, Young, dealer in hardware, guns, pistols, ammunition, cutlery, etc., has a word to the hunters, which they should read and remember. Mr. Young's hardware store is headquarters for hunters and hunter's supplies. His stock embraces everything in the above line and in guns and pistols he makes a specialty of the celebrated brands. In his repair department all goods will be repaired promptly and on short notice. Remember the place, Sixth street—opposite Court House.

Christmas Presents at Cooke's
A great variety of things suitable for Christmas presents can be found at Cooke's, Clarksville, than over before. Gold chains, lockets and chains, buttons, match boxes and dressing cases, gold spectacles and eye glasses, opera glasses and cases, a fine line of silk umbrellas, watches for ladies and gentlemen, and the boys and girls are not forgotten, the cheaper and better than any ever before. A great variety of fancy articles that have to be seen to be appreciated. So if you want something for your best girl, and of course you do, for father, mother, sister, brother, cousin or sweetheart, be sure and go to Cooke's for it, as he has the latest styles and his prices are as low as the lowest and goods of the best.

Should your eyes trouble you, Mr. Cooke has an optician with which he examines the eyes and carefully adjusts lenses of the proper strength to suit. His prices are greatly lower than prices asked by peddlers and his goods are thoroughly reliable. Try him.

ONCE MORE HE CROWS.

The Democratic Victory in the City Election Almost Complete.

Five Out of Seven Councilmen And the City Attorney Elected.

Saturday's election resulted in the election of the city Attorney and of all but two of the Councilmen by the Democrats. In all of the wards a lively interest was taken and a heavy vote was polled, about three-fourths of the entire vote. The Democratic organization brought out the Democrats almost to a man in most of the wards, while the Republicans failed to get out a much larger proportion of their men. The result was about as predicted in Friday's KENTUCKIAN, when only one ward was conceded to the Republicans. Two wards were lost but the result in the First turned upon one vote and to accomplish the defeat of the Democratic nominee it was found necessary to shift about a dozen colored voters into the First from other wards. As the Republicans had two out of the three officers of election to decide all matters this was done with perfect ease and a little perjury. This game was only prevented in other wards by the close watching of well-posted challengers and the energetic work done to pile up minorities to big to be out down by fraud.

The result in the races for Councilmen were as follows:

FIRST WARD.
Dr. J. M. Dennis, D., 47; Dr. A. Seagrave, R., 48.

SECOND WARD.
M. C. Forbes, D., 70; Polk Canaler, R., 35.

THIRD WARD.
R. T. Petree, D., 56; F. J. Brownell, R., 41.

FOURTH WARD.
F. W. Dabner, D., 52; E. P. Campbell, R., 21.

FIFTH WARD.
A. H. Anderson, R., 193; H. W. Tibbs, D., 70. W. H. Merritt pulled off at the expense of the polls.

SIXTH WARD.
E. M. Flack, D., 114; W. C. Wright, R., 24.

SEVENTH WARD.
W. J. Withers, D., 54; W. T. Williamson, R., 22.

FOR CITY ATTORNEY.
Broadbent, 452; 426.

Majority for G. M. Bell, Dem., 26 votes.

POOR CLARKSVILLE!

Two More Big Failures Follow Last Week's Collapses.

Two other big failures have occurred at Clarksville since our last issue and things over there are still in a deplorable condition.
H. O. Hambaugh & Co., proprietors of the Woolen Mills, made an assignment Saturday. Liabilities close on to $100,000.
Yesterday Hancock, Hallums & Co., warehousemen, went to the wall and threw up the sponge. Figures not learned but their liabilities are probably half as heavy as Kendrick, Pettus & Co's, which were about $100,000.

This makes six failures, two banks, three warehouses and one milling firm. Total liabilities estimated at $1,300,000.
Martin L. Cross, the shoe man, reported as having failed, denies that he has quit or will quit business.

The financial situation is still very much unsettled and at least one more big warehouse is almost certain to fail.

Inspector Campbell arrived from Washington Saturday and began an investigation of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank. Until his work is completed it will not be possible to tell what the bank will be able to do.

Clarksville has the sympathies of the people of Hopkinsville and other neighboring cities in her misfortunes. The unfortunate victims of the Franklin Bank collapse are many of them citizens of this county and among their friends the feeling of regret is not altogether unshared with resentment at the way they were swindled by a concern that has been concealing its insolvency for months and perhaps years.
